

2 John — Worksheet 2: Answer Key

Beware of Deceivers — marking guide

Use this to mark your own worksheet. For reflection questions, there is no single right answer — check that your response genuinely engages with the passage.

1. What warning is given in 2 John 1:7?

That many deceivers have gone out into the world, denying Jesus Christ.

2. What instruction is given in 2 John 1:8?

To watch, so as not to lose what had been worked for, but to receive a full reward.

3. What does 2 John 1:10-11 instruct about receiving false teachers into one's home?

Not to receive them or even greet them, since doing so would make one a partaker of their evil deeds.

4. Reflection: This letter takes false teaching seriously enough to warn against even casual hospitality toward it. How do you personally discern teaching that's worth welcoming versus being cautious about?

Open, personal reflection.
